

AMCA EUROPEAN CHAPTER NEWSLETTER

"Having fun with old motorcycles"

Hello AMCA Europe Members,

This time we conclude Swedish member Thorbjörn Sandkvist's report on a five year 1919 Excelsior twin restoration project, report on our Chapter annual meeting, and welcome four new members from four different countries.

Restoring a 1919 Excelsior twin

Among the last things to be done was to bend and shape all the pipes for oil and petrol at all different angles. A number of solder nipples were purchased to recreate the original assembly. Nowadays, solder nipples for fuel and oil pipes are made with a single large nipple head but with different internal hole sizes. Of course, it is easy nowadays to have only one kind of mounting nut and pipe coupling, but this was not typical of the time. After researching and buying several sets of solder nipples, the bend and shape of pipes could finally take place, to later become nickel-plated before mounting. Now what "only" remained was to make all copper gaskets in inches.

April 2021

The kick starter could finally be mounted with all its springs, kick stop, movable rod function etc.

In May 2019, two renovated Carbide lamp were installed with the Swedish make AGA's large lantern at the front and a British make Motex small lamp with side lights at the rear. The Carbide generator had previously been tested and worked, but I do not know if it should be used as it is risky with Carbide gas handling. I will later apply for an exemption for Carbide lighting. The lanterns were tested one evening in the workshop with welding gas and shone surprisingly well! After the installation of the lighting, the Excelsior could finally be taken out into the fresh air and photographed before we were off to Skellefteå a few days later to take part in an exhibition for vintage vehicles, where we received an award as one of the TOP 10.

The long-awaited test start was approaching and about 120 kick start attempts later with trying several times to adjust magneto spark and carburettor. We took down the carburettor and, according to Schebler's instructions in a book from the 1920s, tried to adjust the fuel level on a work bench and discovered that the brass float was too heavy and could not keep up with the flexible throttle, and a new float in today's petrol-resistant material was ordered. When the new float was mounted, suddenly the fuel level in the carburettor could be adjusted. Now, after five years and nine months, the Excelsior could finally be started on two to four kick start attempts and then run with working gears and brakes.

When this was finished, paperwork was prepared and a new origin control application was sent to the Swedish Transport Agency. The registration number was a small summary of events and quirks, SSX 27G, the letter S is number 19 in the alphabet so then S and S should be 1919 and X an abbreviation of Excelsior.

Finally, the Excelsior could be driven on the road, which was done based on the weather with sufficient heat and without precipitation on September 26, 2019. The test ride was 13 km long, and what a great feeling it was to be able to drive what had been renovated for several years. The driving position resembled a comfortable upright position on a chair with one's hands on one's thighs, the sound was an even chug-chug-chug-chug. The motorcycle felt very stable and the difficulty of shifting as feared, turned out surprisingly quickly to be that only minimal throttle was needed, but that the gears had to be distinctly engaged in position, which was done by trampling the clutch down until the motorcycle began to brake, because then a shifting movement could take place. All in all, it was an enormously nice feeling and with an admiring thought to those who produced this vehicle in 1919, what a job! Thank you for what you accomplished and the traces of motorcycle history you left behind.

[Thank you Thorbjorn for a great story – do we have more from our members?]

Chapter Annual Meeting

This was held as a Zoom video meeting on 27 March. For the President's Report, I said we now had 325 members in 22 European countries, a bit up from my last report at Raalte in 2019 and a bit down from my planned 2020 report. Well done all the Country Ambassadors in holding our membership together in these difficult times. As a note, about half of our membership is in Netherlands, Germany and Great Britain, down from about two thirds ten years ago, which I take to mean that interest in our Club is spreading across Europe. Treasurer Martin van Kuijk reported 4247 euros remaining, about a thousand down on last time because of the lack of Meets. This has been filed in our accounts as a UK limited company. Brexit means our .eu Website is now held by a nominee, but it is still OK to have non-UK Directors.

For election of Directors, Vice President Chris Bastiaansen proposed Dave van der Linden and Cees Visser, there were no other candidates, and they were elected unanimously. You will have seen their pictures and motorcycle interests in an earlier newsletter. That gives us four Dutch Directors, one Belgian, two Germans and two British.

As to the date of next meeting, Raalte 2022 has provisionally been arranged for 27 May 2022. For this year, the Dutch government are not presently allowing permits for any Meets, but I am hopeful this may change over the summer and we might just get an October/November Meet together. More news next time.

Raalte Swap Meet

The American Motorcycle Museum (AMM) in Raalte is holding a one-day Swap Meet on 08 May 2021. With travel restrictions it is likely that only Dutch members can attend, so have fun guys and please send me a couple of pictures and a short report.

New Members

We have four new members from four different countries, great news as always:

On the next page is Ralf Moormann from the Niedersachsen region of Germany, standing behind his 1941 Harley knucklehead bobber.

And top of the next column is Stefan van der Wekken from the Netherlands showing us his 1970 Harley shovelhead:

And here is Jan Eichenberger from Switzerland riding his Indian Chout, with a 1947 Chief engine in a 1931 Scout frame:

Welcome to our great Club guys, and we hope to see you out on the road soon!

Harley Pocket Valve Twins

I'm writing a book on the 1915-29 Harley Big Twins, to come out in mid-year at about 170 pages in three sections. First the general business environment, production figures and models; then pictures of good bikes for each year; and then a discussion of each major component such as forks, frames and transmissions to show major changes and give restoration tips. I'm still looking for pictures of good bikes, restored or unrestored. If you think you have one, please contact me. There is no money in the project, but all contributions will be credited and this is a good way to get the knowledge of the older guys out to the next generation.

Bikes for Sale

Long time AMCA member Ferdy van Rijn is hanging up his riding boots and has two bikes for sale. A first year 1929 Harley C 500 cc model:

and a 1930 DL model 750 cc:

Both are said to be good riding bikes with Dutch papers. Email him at ferijn@gmail.com if interested.
